

A Silly Question

Answer every question. Mark a tick inside the box
Stupid bloody questionnaires make me bloody cross
Mr is my title, Lee Robert is my name
Blue's my favourite colour and football's my favourite game
Nine's my UK foot size, sometimes I'm a ten
I also like to go barefoot every now and then
Marital status single, I never have been wed
But countless lonely women have spent a night inside my bed
Yes I am a smoker, I enjoy smoking a fag
It wants to know just how many times I take a drag
I stand at six foot two and my waist is thirty eight
Every hair is all my own, but my teeth are on a plate
My medical conditions, have nothing to do with you
Intimate operations, yes I've had one or two
I don't follow religion, for me it has no meaning
But I'd never tell another man he's stupid for believing
Where it questions sex, I love to write yes please
It adds a touch of humour with a little bit of sleaze
Want to know what race I am, Asian black or white
My race is the human kind I answer so polite
And finally financially, let's talk banks and cash
If you really want to ask me that, you can stick your questions up your ass
