

~ Blue Moon ~

She's leaving, her dreams come true
My heart's aching, but she needs to go
I am going home soon
And I'm bringing blue moon

Even the moon up in the sky
Is shining so bright
It can do nothing to my eye
Each day it seems like night

I shed a tear
My heart's bleed
It keeps ringing on my ear
All the things she said

I hear the voice inside of me
Keep telling me let it be
But it's just so hard to do
Knowing that my only joy here is you
