

Feel the music

The bass drum beats a pounding beat
That makes you want to tap your feet
Pulsing like a giants heart
Everything stops as the music starts
Snare and high hat fill the gaps
Doubling the foot sole taps
Taking you to another place
Inside your head and on your face
When the bass guitar is introduced
A brand new sound has been produced
Humming, purring nice and easy
Sounding sexy, sounding sleazy
And still your feet they keep in time
With strumming fingers on the thigh
Gibson and Fender harmonies
Rhythm and lead reach for the skies
Sending you into a trance
Wanting to get up and dance
Becoming one with the mighty sounds
Filling the void that's all around
The vocals make the sound complete
Blending in, the tones so sweet
Rhyming words that mean so much
Emotional the chords they touch
They sound so right they must be true
These words were clearly written for you
And so you stand and belt them out
At the top of your lungs you scream and shout
Until, alas it fades away
So you skip it back and again press play.

By Lee Haigh