

In my opinion

I'd look at an opinion, analyse its every part
Cos it's only an opinion, not related from the start
Three sides to every story, so have we really got a clue
What is an opinion, and what is really true

I'd consider an opinion, sincere as it's told
Cos it's an opinion, it's already third hand old
Angles of perspectives, trying to piece the gaps
What is an opinion, and what is really fact

I'd hear an opinion, not dismiss it out of hand
Cos it's only an opinion, somewhere thought was planned
Someone gave a damn, and they wanted it to show
That's only my opinion, so you'll never really know.
