

The moon was very bright last night,
Shining through the stars,
It really was a lovely sight
Twinkling on the cars

She had her little beret on
Hiding one coy eye
She nearly did outshine the sun
She had a damn good try

The stars moved round but she shone on
Shining through the cloudy night
I couldn't take my eyes off her
She really was so bright

Which might explain why I today
Am walking in to work
I should have checked the road ahead
I really am a jerk!!
