

While there's still time

So many loose ends to tidy up, before I say goodbye
Apologies, kind regards and admitting untold lies
I have to leave a legacy that can do somebody some good
I have to leave a memory much more than the family blood
Countless lonely people have been and come and gone
But while I'm still here I'll swallow my fear and figure out how to live on

By Lee Haigh