

Do you believe?

Do you believe in Santa Claus?
Do you believe in snow?
Do you believe that Ruidolph
Could make his red nose glow?
Do you listen out for sleigh bells
On Christmas Eve at night?
Do you sit and watch for reindeer
Flying in the sky so bright?

But have you thought that Christmas
Is not about just toys?
Have you thought that Christmas
May not always bring us joy?
There's people who at Christmas
Have to spend the day alone;
There's people who at Christmas
May not have a home.

For some it can be painful
To see the festive cheer;
To see children's happy faces
While they may live in fear.
Some people don't like Christmas
Because it brings them pain,
Reminding them of loneliness,
Every year, again.

So when you're loving Christmas
With all it means to you,
Remember there are people
Who would love to have that too;
And spare a thought for those of us
Who do not have it all,
No presents round the Christmas tree,
No 'Christmas one and all';
We'd love to stay with family,
Or celebrate with friends,
We'd love to have the comfort
On which Christmas does depend.

So peace on earth, goodwill to men,
Please do enjoy your day;
But maybe you can take the time

To maybe have a pray
For all those folks for whom this time
Is not all peace and laughter
And hope that maybe next year
We'll all have a 'happy ever after'.
