

Lament for Fraser

Our darling boy, you'll never know
How much you meant to me;
You were our hope, you were joy,
But it wasn't mean to be.
You left us in the arms of death
Before you even breathed,
And now we just have emptiness
And now we are bereaved.
You never lived upon this earth
You never knew the joys
That living gives to all God's folks,
Even little boys.
But you will live on in our hearts,
And no matter what,
We'll love you now and ever more
You'll never be forgot
