The moon was very bright last night, Shining through the stars, It really was a lovely sight Twinkling on the cars

She had her little beret on Hiding one coy eye She nearly did outshine the sun She had a damn good try

The stars moved round but she shone on Shining through the cloudy night I couldn't take my eyes off her She really was so bright

Which might explain why I today
Am walking in to work
I should have checked the road ahead
I really am a jerk!!
